

Easter Story Cookies

Ingredients / Items Needed:

Bible

1 cup whole pecans
1 teaspoon vinegar
3 egg whites
Pinch of salt
1 cup white sugar
1 large gallon zipper bag
Wooden spoon
Tape

Directions:

Preheat oven to 300 degrees.

Activity: Put pecans in a Ziploc bag and let children beat them with a wooden spoon, to break them into small pieces.

Discussion: After Jesus was arrested, He was beaten by the Roman soldiers.

Read: John 19:1-3. Then Pilate took Jesus and had Him flogged. The soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head. They clothed Him in a purple robe and went up to Him again and again saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" And they struck Him in the face.

Activity: Let children smell vinegar. Add a teaspoon of vinegar to a mixing bowl.

Discussion: When Jesus was thirsty on the cross, he was given vinegar to drink.

Read: John 19:28,30. Later knowing that all was now completed, so that the scripture would be fulfilled, Jesus said, "I am thirsty." A jug of wine vinegar was there, so they soaked a sponge in it, put the sponge on a stalk of the hyssop plant and lifted it to Jesus' lips. When He had received the drink, Jesus said "It is finished." With that, He bowed His head and gave up His Spirit.

Activity: Add egg whites to vinegar.

Discussion: Eggs represent life. Jesus gave His life to give us life.

Read: John 10:10-11. The thief comes only to steal, kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life and have it to the full. "I am the Good Shepherd. The Good Shepherd lays down His life for the sheep."

Activity: Sprinkle a little salt into each child's hand. Let them taste it and brush the rest into the bowl with the egg and vinegar.

Discussion: This represents the salty tears shed by Jesus' followers, and the bitterness of our own sins.

Read: Luke 23:27. A large number of people followed Him, including women who mourned and wailed for Him.

Activity: Add one cup of sugar.

Discussion: The sweetest part of the story is that Jesus died because He loves us. He wants us to know and belong to Him.

Read: Psalm 34:8. Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man who takes refuge in Him, and John 3:16 “For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believeth in Him shall not perish but have everlasting life.”

Activity: Beat with a mixer on high speed for 12-15 minutes or until stiff peaks are formed.

Discussion: The color white represents the purity in God’s eyes of those whose sins have been cleansed by Jesus.

Read: Isaiah 1:18 “Come now, let us reason together,” says the Lord. “Though your sins are like scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they are red as crimson, they shall be like wool.” And John 3:1-3 Now, there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a member of the Jewish ruling council. He came to Jesus at night and said, “Rabbi, we know you are a teacher who has come from God, for no one could perform the miraculous signs you are doing if God were not with him.” In reply Jesus declared, “I tell you the truth, no one can see the kingdom of God unless he is born again.”

Activity: Fold in broken nuts. Line cookie sheet with waxed paper. Drop mixture by spoonfuls onto waxed paper.

Discussion: Each mound represents the rocky tomb where Jesus’ body was laid.

Read: Matthew 27:57-60. As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. Joseph took the body, wrapped it in clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

Activity: Place the cookie sheet in the oven, close the door and turn the oven OFF. Give each child a piece of tape and seal the oven door.

Discussion: Jesus’ tomb was sealed.

Read: Matthew 27:65-66 “Take a guard,” Pilate answered. “Go make the tomb as secure as you know how.” So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting a guard.

Activity: GO TO BED.

Discussion: You may feel sad that we had to leave the cookies in the oven overnight. Jesus’ followers were sad when the tomb was sealed.

Read: John 16:20 “I tell you the truth you will weep and mourn while the world rejoices. You will grieve, but your grief will turn to joy.” And John 16:22, “So with you – Now is your time of grief, but I will see you again and you will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.”

On Easter morning, open the oven and remove the cookies. Take a bite. Notice...the inside of the cookies are hollow!

On the first Easter Jesus’ followers were amazed to find the tomb open and empty.

Read: Matthew 28:1-9 After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightening, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. The angel said to the women, “Do not be just as He said. Come and see the place where He lay. Then go quickly and tell His disciples, “He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see Him. Now I have told you. “So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and fan to tell His disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them, “Greetings,” He said. They came to Him, clasped His feet and worshipped Him.
